

A reading from Revelation chapter 5 verses 1 through 5. You can find this reading on page 1041 of your pew Bible.

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city; also, on either side of the river, the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. No longer will there be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him. They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And night will be no more. They will need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Please join me in praying Psalm 126.

Leader: When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion,
we were like those who dream.

People: Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with shouts of joy;

Leader: then they said among the nations,
“The Lord has done great things for them.”

People: The Lord has done great things for us;
we are glad.

Leader: Restore our fortunes, O Lord,
like streams in the Negeb!

People: Those who sow in tears shall reap with shouts of joy!

Leader: He who goes out weeping,
bearing the seed for sowing,

People: shall come home with shouts of joy,
bringing his sheaves with him.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Leader: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

And he told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. As soon as they come out in leaf, you see for yourselves and know that the summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near.
