A reading from Philippians chapter 4 verses 4 through 7. You can find this reading on page 982 of your pew Bible.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Please join me in praying Psalm 19.

Leader: The heavens declare the glory of God,
and the sky above proclaims his handiwork.

People: Day to day pours out speech, and night to night reveals knowledge.

Leader: There is no speech, nor are there words,
whose voice is not heard.

People: Their voice goes out through all the earth,
and their words to the end of the world.

Leader: In them he has set a tent for the sun,

People: which comes out like a bridegroom leaving his chamber,
and, like a strong man, runs its course with joy.

Leader: Its rising is from the end of the heavens,
and its circuit to the end of them,
and there is nothing hidden from its heat.

People: The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul;

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Leader: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." So they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now." This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

After this he went down to Capernaum, with his mother and his brothers and his disciples, and they stayed there for a few days.
