FIRST STATION

Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane

LEADER:

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

EVERYONE:

Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

READER:

Then Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane. He said to them, "Sit here while I go over there and pray." He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee along with him. He began to be sad and troubled. Then he said to them, "My soul is very sad. I feel close to death. Stay here. Keep watch with me." He went a little farther. Then he fell with his face to the ground. He prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, take this cup of suffering away from me. But let what you want be done, not what I want." Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. "Couldn't you men keep watch with me for one hour?" he asked Peter. "Watch and pray. Then you won't fall into sin when you are tempted. The spirit is willing, but the body is weak." (Matthew 26:36-41)

Please kneel, as you are able.

Pause for silent prayer.

EVERYONE: O Jesus, wake us from our sleep. Help us to face life's difficulties honestly, knowing that we can trust in you. Strengthen us when things are hard. May our prayer always be a way to say all that we are, and all that we do. We love you, Jesus; teach us how to pray.

Please stand, as you are able.

LEADER:

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

EVERYONE:

Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

READER:

Just as Jesus was speaking, Judas appeared. He was one of the 12 disciples. A crowd was with him. They were carrying swords and clubs. The chief priests, the teachers of the law, and the elders had sent them. Judas, who was going to hand Jesus over, had arranged a signal with them. "The one I kiss is the man," he said. "Arrest him and have the guards lead him away." So Judas went to Jesus at once. Judas said, "Rabbi!" And he kissed Jesus. The men grabbed Jesus and arrested him. (Mark 14:43-46)

Please kneel, as you are able.

Pause for silent prayer.

EVERYONE:    O Jesus, we are quick to greet you with kindness in our prayer and worship. But how often do the words we speak and our actions cover up hearts that are easily turned from you? We love you, Jesus, help us to love you with all of our hearts.

EVERYONE:

Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

READER:

At dawn the elders of the people met together. These included the chief priests and the teachers of the law. Jesus was led to them. "If you are the Messiah," they said, "tell us." Jesus answered, "If I tell you, you will not believe me. And if I asked you, you would not answer. But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the mighty God." They all asked, "Are you the Son of God then?" He replied, "You say that I am." Then they said, "Why do we need any more witnesses? We have heard it from his own lips." (Luke 22:66-71)

Please kneel, as you are able.

Pause for silent prayer.

EVERYONE: O Jesus, we can often see you only in small ways but you are so much bigger! Give us grace to understand your words clearly and to follow you in truth. We love you, Jesus; show yourself to us.

LEADER:

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

EVERYONE:

Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

READER:

Peter was sitting out in the courtyard. A female servant came to him. "You also were with Jesus of Galilee," she said. But in front of all of them, Peter said he was not. "I don't know what you're talking about," he said. Then he went out to the gate leading into the courtyard. There another servant saw him. She said to the people, "This fellow was with Jesus of Nazareth." Again he said he was not. With a curse he said, "I don't know the man!" After a little while, those standing there went up to Peter. "You must be one of them," they said. "The way you talk gives you away." Then Peter began to curse and said to them, "I don't know the man!" Right away a rooster crows. Then Peter remembered what Jesus had said. "The rooster will crow," Jesus had told him. "Before it does, you will say three times that you don't know me." Peter went outside. He broke down and cried. (Matthew 26:69-75)

Please kneel, as you are able.

Pause for silent prayer.

EVERYONE: O Jesus, we set out to follow you but then quickly turn, going our own way. We are afraid to say we know you in front of others, but you speak to us even when we say we don't know you. We love you, Jesus; keep us faithful to you.

Jesus is judged by Pilate

LEADER:

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

EVERYONE:

Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

READER:

Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers and the people. He said to them, "You brought me this man. You said he was turning the people against the authorities. I have questioned him in front of you. I have found no basis for your charges against him. Herod hasn't either. So he sent Jesus back to us. As you can see, Jesus has done nothing that is worthy of death. So I will just have him whipped and let him go." But the whole crowd shouted, "Kill this man! But let Barabbas go!" Barabbas had been thrown into prison. He had taken part in a struggle in the city against the authorities. He had also committed murder. Pilate wanted to let Jesus go. So he made an appeal to the crowd again. But they kept shouting, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" Pilate spoke to them for the third time. "Why?" he asked. "What wrong has this man done? I have found no reason to have him put to death. So I will just have him whipped and let him go." But with loud shouts they kept calling for Jesus to be crucified. The people's shouts won out. So Pilate decided to give them what they wanted. He set free the man they asked for. The man had been thrown in prison for murder and for fighting against the authorities. Pilate handed Jesus over to them so they could carry out their plans. (Luke 23:13-25)

Please kneel, as you are able.

Pause for silent prayer.

EVERYONE: O Jesus, how often we let the voice of the crowd be louder and more important than the voice of what we know to be true. Fill us with compassion for the outcast and help us stay true to the truth. We love you, Jesus; help us to follow you and not just the crowd.

Then Pilate took Jesus and had him whipped. The soldiers twisted thorns together to make a crown. They put it on Jesus' head. Then they put a purple robe on him. They went up to him again and again. They kept saying, "We honor you, king of the Jews!" And they slapped him in the face. (John 19:1-3)

Please kneel, as you are able.

Jesus carries the cross

LEADER:

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

EVERYONE:

Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

READER:

As soon as the chief priests and their officials saw him, they shouted, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" But Pilate answered, "You take him and crucify him. I myself find no basis for a charge against him." But they shouted, "Take him away! Take him away! Crucify him!" "Should I crucify your king?" Pilate asked. "We have no king but Caesar," the chief priests answered. Finally, Pilate handed Jesus over to them to be nailed to a cross. So the soldiers took charge of Jesus. He had to carry his own cross. He went out to a place called the Skull. In the Aramaic language it was called Golgotha. (John 19: 6, 15-17)

Please kneel, as you are able.

Pause for silent prayer.

EVERYONE: O Jesus, you carry a cross, which you do not deserve. You choose to take the punishment for the things we do wrong and take up the cross we deserve. A large number of people followed Jesus. Some were women whose hearts were filled with sorrow. They cried loudly because of him. Jesus turned and said to them, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me. Weep for yourselves and for your children. The time will come when you will say, 'Blessed are the women who can't have children! Blessed are those who never gave birth or nursed babies!' It is written,

"The people will say to the mountains, "Fall on us!"

CLOSING

LEADER:

On the evening of that first day of the week, the disciples were together. They had locked the doors because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. Jesus came in and stood among them. He said, "May peace be with you!" Then he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were very happy when they saw the Lord. Again Jesus said, "May peace be with you! The Father has sent me. So now I am sending you." (John 20:19-21)

The Apostles' Creed

EVERYONE:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth;
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.
